

To whom it may concern,

I am totally dismayed about the possibility of charging rules for Christian stations. Christian stations should be allowed to carry on just as they are. The first amendment, Freedom of speech, is being threatened here. Having one board to oversee all stations is unjust in a certain light. Suppose they are not a fan of Christian music? That may influence them to overrule certain things of those types of stations. Christian stations run on a shoe-string budget or are listener supported, such as K-LOVE. Placing these proposals in effect would place a burden most could not withstand. Translation to stations across the nation would affect many people, those who have gotten up every morning just to hear the music they like. It does a lot for a person when that favorite song comes on. It has the ability to make people do what other people try to make them do, smile. These stations are so important to millions of people, worldwide and in the states. I love getting up every morning and having the ability to listen to positive & encouraging music. I like to stay away from commercials, silly morning talk shows with vulgar jokes & language, we already have enough of that on T.V. Let's keep Christian on; all people have the choice to not have to listen if they don't want to!
